Jerry is also the author of the professional reference book:

Protecting Your Company Against Civil & Criminal Liability

Published by Aspatore Press

His work has focused on helping organizations identify weaknesses before they become costly financial losses, regulatory investigations, or public relations crises.

Services for Nonprofit Organizations

Nonprofits face increasing pressure from donors, regulators, grant agencies, and governing boards to demonstrate sound financial stewardship.

Tax Options LLC provides independent consulting services including:

Fraud Risk Assessments

Identify vulnerabilities before fraud occurs.

Internal Control Reviews

Evaluate accounting procedures, cash handling, purchasing, payroll, and financial reporting controls.

Governance Reviews

Assist boards in strengthening oversight responsibilities and financial accountability.

Grant Compliance Reviews

Evaluate financial controls supporting federal, state, and private grant requirements.

Whistleblower Program Assessments

Review reporting mechanisms and investigate concerns objectively.

Conflict-of-Interest Reviews

Evaluate governance policies and related-party transactions.

Financial Process Improvement

Improve efficiency while reducing organizational risk.

Special Investigations

Independent forensic reviews involving suspected fraud, embezzlement, misuse of assets, or financial misconduct.

Services for Businesses

Organizations of every size face increasing exposure to:

- Occupational fraud
- Vendor fraud
- Payroll fraud
- Expense reimbursement abuse
- Procurement irregularities
- Cyber-related financial risks
- Internal control failures

Tax Options LLC assists companies with:

- Fraud prevention consulting
 - Internal control design
 - SOX readiness assessments
 - Internal audit support
 - Corporate governance reviews
 - Compliance assessments
 - Financial investigations
 - Litigation support

Why Prevention Costs Less Than Recovery

According to industry research, organizations lose billions annually to occupational fraud.

Many fraud schemes continue for months—or even years—before detection.

A proactive review of internal controls can significantly reduce exposure and improve confidence among boards, donors, investors, and management.
